FINDING THE TRUE COST OF STUDY ABROAD/AWAY

...it's all about financial aid!

SEMESTER/ACADEMIC YEAR PROGRAMS

Aid availability for study abroad/away programs varies on program type. These charts explain when the awards that already appear on your Carroll University Financial Aid Award may be used for the three types of study abroad programs: exchange, affiliated, and unaffiliated.

Note: Current values on your Financial Aid Award are calculated using the cost of attendance at Carroll University and may change based on the cost of attendance on your study abroad program. This chart will help you anticipate which awards you may use on your program, not the actual dollar amount you will receive.

SUMMER/WINTER PROGRAMS

Because summer and winter terms are not terms when financial aid is typically dispersed at Carroll University, financial aid is typically not available for summer and winter programs. However, students who receive federal financial aid and who choose to participate in a summer program lasting four weeks or more with a minimum of six credits may be able to use some of their federal aid to help cover program costs. In most cases this does not increase the amount

Additional funding sources (scholarships, loans) are available.
